Investigation Into Pardons Is Ordered

FRANKFORT (UPI) — Gov. Bert Combs directed the state attorney general Monday to make a complete investigation "of the matter of pardons and commutations of sentence by secretary of State Thelma Stovall" during her brief term in the governor's office 10 days ago.

Mrs. Stovall pardoned three persons and commuted the sentences of five others during a four-hour period while former Gov. A. B. Chandler and former Lt. Gov. Harry Lee Waterfield were out of the state.

Mrs. Stovall later declared she had been offered a $20,000 bribe by an attorney to have one of his clients pardoned. Franklin County Commonwealth's Atty. James Hanrahan has indicated he will take the bribe charge to the next grand jury.

Combs said, "I have talked to Mrs. Stovall about this investigation and she is in complete accord with the action taken."

"There is some indication, to me at least, that this girl was used to pull somebody's else's chestnuts out of the fire."

The order to the attorney general requested him to be "thorough, prompt and fair" in his investigation.

Letter to the Editor

Mr. Jim Williams
Ledger and Times
Dear Jim:
The Murray Junior Chamber of Commerce would like to thank you and your paper for the publicity you gave us last month in our annual radio auction.

Through your help and the people of Calloway County we were able to raise over $1700.00 to be used for a Community Development Program. We are now making plans for one of the biggest Christmases the needy children of this county have ever had. There are other projects in which this money will be used but only through a successful radio auction were we able to fulfill our aims.

We would like to wish you and yours a Merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year.

Sincerely yours,
JOHN SAMMONS
President

Kenny Oliver, a member of the Kirksey Junior High 4-H Club, showed and sold the champion 4-H air-cured tobacco at the District 4-H and FFA Aired Tobacco Show and Sale held at Mayfield on Monday, December 14. Kenny, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Oliver, is in the 7th grade at Kirksey School.

Kenny also received first place for having the best handled crop. He sold one basket for $47.00, another for $44.00, another for $34.00, and another for $27.00. The total crop weighed 660 pounds and was raised on 38 acres of ground.

Kenny received a trophy from Holmes Ellis, manager of the Western Kentucky Dark Tobacco Growers Association.

Kenny had the only entry from Calloway County in this show.

Banquet Held For Gridders Of Murray Hi

W. C. Elkins was the speaker last night at the annual Murray High football banquet sponsored by the Murray Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Approximately 70 people attended the dinner held in the new private dining room of Triangle Inn. Present were the coaches, the 1959 team, members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the fathers of the players.

Tom Emerson acted as toastmaster for the evening and John Sammons, Jaycee president, gave the welcome address. Fred Schultz, principal at Murray High School, led the opening prayer. Mr. Elkins gave a fine address on the value of overcoming handicaps and pointed out several examples of prominent people who had achieved success after overcoming great handicaps.

Coach Eli Alexander presented the West Kentucky Conference Award to Billy Kopperud for being named to the all-conference team. The Lancaster - Veal Best Blocking Award was presented to Frank Rickman by Coach W. P. Russell. Head Coach Ty Holland awarded the letters and bars to the team. Coach Glen Jeffrey presented the 1959 captains who in turn presented the 1960 co-captains. Robert Lee and Jimmy Rose have been named as new co-captains.

Following the program the film of the Murray High - Fulton City game was shown.

The entire Murray Knight team hit in the scoring column as Landolt was followed by little Herb Dingwerth with 15 and Chico Reyes and Joe Parker who each contributed 10 points each. The Murray Knights first team played less than a half last night, as the strong Murray bench kept on rolling up the score.

Lyon County was led by Pearcey with 17 and Knott with 12 points. Lyon County lacked the size and bench strength to compete with the Murray team.

The next Murray Knight game is scheduled for Jan 4th at 7:30 in the Carr Health building against a very strong Sedalia team that was only defeated by Hardin by three points. Hardin was the only team to defeat Murray and that was by ten points.

Controversial Will Case Is Resumed In Mayfield Today

MAYFIELD (UPI) — The trial of the controversial will case of the late multi-millionaire Ed Gardner resumed in Graves Circuit Court after a two-day recess.

Bunk Gardner Sr., Mayfield, a retired federal judge, is contesting the will on grounds it was not properly executed, therefore invalid.

The First National Bank of Mayfield and the Annie Gardner Foundation, named for the late wife of Ed Gardner, both are upholding the will, which named the foundation as its chief beneficiary.

Ed Gardner died in June, 1958, and his will was probated shortly after his death. A controversial codicil to the will was found in a "wishing well" on the Gardner estate but it later was termed fraudulent, both by handwriting experts and Bunk Gardner Sr., who is contesting the present will.

The trial, which reopened today, is based on an appeal of Bunk Gardner Sr. from the Graves County Court order probating his late brother's will.

Circuit Judge Elvis J. Stahl resumed the trial last Friday until today after the jury had heard the testimony of two witnesses and a portion of the deposition of another.

C. V. Morgan, president of the First National Bank, trustee for the Annie Gardner Foundation, and Mrs. Barbara Whitlow, Anchorage, a former bank employee, testified last week.

A part of a deposition of W. A. Usher, Ed Gardner's former business partner who now lives in California, was read to the jury.

Morgan testified Friday that Gardner, former president of the First National Bank, wrote a complete new will in 1948, back-dated to 1941. He added that from time to time Gardner substituted new pages for pages of the will.

Most of the changes dealt with tax provisions and voting of Usher and Gardner stock.

He said such substitutions were made over a period from 1948 to 1953 until only two pages, the first and last, remained of the original 1948 document.

Stahl would not permit him to testify about the circumstances surrounding the execution of a codicil to the will in 1956, ruling that testimony on that point must be limited strictly to Gardner's and the witnesses signing it.

The ruling upheld the contention of attorneys for Bunk Gardner Sr. that the codicil must "stand on its own feet," and that testimony concerning what Gardner said about it at the time could not be permitted.

Mrs. Whitlow testified that Morgan dictated the codicil to her. She said she signed it and witnessed Morgan and Gardner's signatures. She said Morgan then placed it between the pages of a document she assumed to be Gardner's will.

Concert To Be Given Here Tonight

A concert featuring the music of Handel will be presented by the Murray State College band in the auditorium at 8:15 p.m. Dec. 15. Prof. Paul W. Shaheen will conduct.

Symphonies and orchestras throughout the nation are presenting similar programs in memory of the well known 18th century composer, George Frederick Handel.

Handel was born in 1685 and died in 1759. This program marks the 200th year since his death.

Featured in the concert will be two of his most famous works, Suite from "Water Music" and "Royal Fireworks."

"Water Music" was written by Handel in honor of the accession of George I to the English throne. While the new king traveled from Lincolnshead to Whitehall by river, Handel and his 100-piece orchestra followed close behind on a flat boat playing the 29 pieces he had written especially for the occasion.

"Royal Fireworks" was written in celebration of the peace of Aix-la-Chapelle. This music was inspired by an array of fireworks touched off in London's Green Park.

Also on the program will be "Suite of Dances" from Handel's early ballet, "The Gods Go A-Begging," arranged by Sir Thomas Beecham; "Occasional Suite," including excerpts from various oratorios; and his most familiar work, "Hallelujah Chorus," from "The Messiah."

Pre-Legislative Conference Set

FRANKFORT (UPI) — Gov. Bert T. Combs met with his cabinet Monday to discuss the mechanics of the pre-legislative conference to be held at Kentucky Dam Village State Park Wednesday and Thursday.

The governor told the cabinet members of a new personnel policy for highway department maintenance workers, historically a group of state employees subject to the most direct pressure of political hiring, firing and assessment.

The new plan calls for an examining board that will provide oral tests of maintenance workers in order to obtain the best qualified workers possible for the available jobs.

The chief purpose of the oral exams will be to ascertain the training and experience of job applicants.

At his first formal cabinet meetings, Combs also made a move toward carrying out his promise to remove "sleepers" and "drones" from the state payroll.

He asked all department heads to send him lists of non-essential jobs in their agencies and to include lists of essential jobs that are not being filled properly by present appointees.

Combs told the cabinet that no alcoholic beverages would be permitted at Departmental Christmas parties on state property.

He warned state officers against accepting expensive Christmas gifts of any sort.

Christmas Program

A Christmas program will be held by the Locust Grove Church of the Nazarene on Wednesday, December 23. Everyone is invited to attend. Rev. Robert Bryozles is pastor of the church.

City Council Sets Salaries At Regular Meeting Last Night

All city officials and employees were re-elected last night at a council meeting with the council being unanimous both on salary increases allowed and the persons named to fill the positions.

There were no changes in city personnel.

Preceding the passage of an ordinance setting up certain positions in the city and the salary to be paid, Joe Dick, chairman of the Finance Committee made several remarks concerning the proposed budget.

Dick said that the budget last year was $108,000 while the income was $174,000. This year the proposed budget will be $190,000 with an anticipated income of $195,000.

After payment of certain taxes a surplus of about $2000 is anticipated. Dick told the council that the new proposed budget included the recommended raises by the various committee heads of the city council. The increase in income comes from property taxes primarily with about $5,000 being represented by the newly annexed areas to the city.

Following are the annual salaries as set by the ordinance which was passed on the first reading:

City Attorney $1800
City Clerk $750
Bldg. Custodian $900
Deputy Clerk $1050
An increase of approximately $10 per month was voted for the police department with salaries set as follows:

Police Chief $3480
Sergeants $3120
Patrolmen with more than two years experience $2940
Patrolmen with less than one years experience $2700
An increase of approximately $10 per month was voted for the fire department with salaries set as follows:

Chief	$3480
Assistant Chief	$3120
Shift Leaders	$2820
Firemen with more than two years experience	$2700
Firemen with less than two years experience	$2560

Superintendent of the Water & Sewer Dept.	$6900
Superintendent of the Natural Gas System	$6,000
Building Inspector	$1200 plus expense of $300.

Wage increases were also passed for the Murray Gas System amounting to $10 to $25 depending on the nature of the position.

Wage increases were approved for the water system also.

Local Boys Placed Under $4,000 Bond

Phil Collie and G. C. Cain of Murray were placed under bonds of $4,000 each yesterday in Mayfield, Kentucky in the court of Graves County Judge Henry Jack Wilson. The two are being held in connection with the hit-and-run of Robert Earl Nance early Saturday morning.

Collie is charged with manslaughter and leaving the scene of an accident and Cain is charged with being an accessory.

Graves County Sheriff Walter Spillman served the warrant on the pair yesterday in the Calloway County courthouse and carried them back to Graves County and placed them in the county jail there.

Local county authorities discovered the hit-run car after a state police broadcast told of the incident. The broadcast indicated that the car was a Mercury, black and white, with dented front end.

Half of a Montclair emblem was found at the scene of the incident just south of Mayfield. Another emblem, and pieces of the windshield.

These parts fit the car of Phil Collie which was located at the cleanup shop operated by his father, Leon Collie on South Ninth extended.

The two boys were arrested Sunday morning and placed in the Calloway County jail.

It was brought out at the inquest held yesterday in Mayfield that the car was on the wrong side of the road when Nance was hit and that Nance was dragged about 181 feet along the highway.

Nance is the father of four children, all under the age of five.

Choir Featured In Annual Event

The a cappella choir will be featured at Murray State College's annual candlelight service convocation at 10 a.m. Friday.

They will sing the 32-page Christmas carol, "Song of Christmas" by Roy Ringwald. Prof. Robert K. Bear will conduct.

Kentucky Not Out Of National Picture Yet, Kansas Discovers

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
Don't count those Kentucky Wildcats out of the national basketball picture!

They've suffered two early-season defeats but Coach Adolph Rupp's boys bounced back with a 77-72 overtime victory over Kansas Monday night and now go on to the week-end Kentucky Invitational Tournament in which third-ranked West Virginia, fifth-ranked North Carolina and sixth-ranked St. Louis also are entered.

A victory in that tournament plus a triumph over second-ranked Ohio State, Dec. 28, and the Wildcats would be right back among the country's top 10 teams—where they started the season with high hopes that this might prove to be one of Rupp's greatest teams.

Sweet Victory For Rupp
Kentucky's third victory in five games was especially sweet for Rupp because it marked the 38-year old coach's first return to the Lawrence, Kan. campus since he won a letter on the 1923 national championship team there.

Kansas guard Bob Hickman sank a game-tying field goal with only 20 seconds remaining in regulation time so after all those years, Rupp had to wait five minutes more to win at his old stamping grounds. Then free throws by Don Mills and Sid Cohen, sandwiched between a tip-in and recovered by 6-9 center Ned Jennings clinched the victory.

Jennings was high scorer for Kentucky with 27 points but game honors went to Kansas soph Wayne Hightower who had 33 points. It was the second loss in five games for ninth-ranked Kansas.

Mountaineers Warm Up

West Virginia warmed up for the Kentucky Invitational with a 91-76 win over Virginia Military Institute, eighth-ranked Bradley nipped Providence, 57-55, 11th-ranked Indiana rallied to beat Kansas State, 67-58, 16th-ranked Illinois defeated Marquette, 84-77; topseed Xavier, 95-71, for its fifth straight victory. Notre Dame downed Nebraska, 70-62, Mississippi won its sixth straight game, 75-58, over Arkansas State and Missouri beat Wisconsin, 78-66, in other top games.

All-American Jerry West tallied 27 points to lead West Virginia to its sixth straight win of the season, 75-58 in a row in Southern Conference play and its 37th straight at Morgantown. W. Va. Joe Gedro scored 30 points for Virginia Military.

Maryland beat Georgetown, 59-48; Miami (Fla.) downed Murray State, 92-86; Texas crushed Louisiana State University, 84-67; Dave Craig scored 32 points as Rice defeated Tulane, 90-79; Houston topped North Texas State, 86-59, and Jack Chapman's 22-64 triumph over Texas Christian.

Eugene Herndon

romping victory but the determined Racers fought back from a 13-point deficit at one point in the period to close the gap and deadlock the count 43-43 as the first half ended.

The Thoroughbreds were leading 74-68 with approximately seven minutes left in the contest but a sudden burst of scoring saw the Hurricanes rocket to a six point lead, 92-76, with a minute to play. Murray picked up two more baskets before the contest ended.

Miami scored on 32 field goals, 28 of 32 free throw attempts, and was charged with 16 personal fouls. Murray hit 33 field goals, 14 of 23 charity tosses and made 23 fouls. Gene Herndon led the Racers with 19 points, 12 of them in the first half. Larry Bale was close behind with 18 and O'Riordan picked up 11. Godfrey led the Hurricanes with 22 points. Four other players scored in double figures. Godfrey hit 100 per cent from the charity lane with 12 out of 12 attempts.

First Annual MSC Christmas Tournament Is Shaping Up As One Of Country's Best Meets

The First Annual Murray State College Invitational Basketball Tournament, scheduled for Dec. 18-19 is shaping up as one of the outstanding holiday tournaments in the country.

Participating in the two-night affair will be Mississippi State, champions of the Southeastern Conference last year; Baylor University, one of the favorites for the Southwest Conference crown; Memphis State, an ancient Murray rival; and Murray State.

Baylor and Mississippi State will open first night action at 7:30 to be followed by Memphis State and Murray. First round losers will play in the preliminary on the second night, to be followed by opening night winners in the championship final.

Last year the Maroons of Mississippi State had the greatest basketball year in the school's history, winning 24 games while losing only 1, taking the SEC championship, and ending the season in third place in the Associated Press basketball poll.

This superlative record was put together in Coach Babe McCarthy's fourth year at state, a tenure that has seen the Maroons start from the bottom and work steadily to the top. In McCarthy's first year, State had a 12-12 record. Next season they were 17-8 and McCarthy was named Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year. The third season under McCarthy, the Maroons had a 20-5 record and were third in the SEC.

The Maroon will sorely miss Bailey Howell this season, who averaged 27.5 a game last year and was named everyone's All-American, but returning are their No. 2 and 3 scorers, Charles Hull and Jerry Graves. Back also is one other letterman, guard John Hutchinson. The rest of the squad is composed of three juniors who didn't letter last year and six sophomores.

State is off to a good start this year, having romped to easy victories over Troy State, Southeast Louisiana, and Union University. Coach R. E. (Mr. Bill) Henderson's Baylor Bears are normally strong title contenders in the Southwest Conference, and this season appears to be no exception. Four starters from last year are returning plus one who split starting time last season.

The Bears used a five-man weave attack last season, played control ball, emphasized defense, and lacked scoring on the post. They are expected to play a similar type of ball this season, with the same type team and could be one of Baylor's best clubs since the 1950-55 era.

Baylor has jumped to an impressive start this season having defeated Howard-Payne and perennially tough Oklahoma State and Tulsa.

Memphis State has two starters back from last year's highly successful team which put together a 17-6 record. Also returning are seven other squad men.

The Tigers have compiled a 67-18 record the last three years under Coach Bob Vanatta. Three seasons ago in Vanatta's first year at Memphis, he took his team to the National Invitational Tournament only to lose in the finals by one point to Bradley.

Memphis State dropped their opener this season to Big Ten favorite Ohio State but since then have swept to victory over North Texas State and Texas Wesleyan.

Murray State fans are expecting great things from Coach Cal Luther and the Thoroughbreds, but they may be a year away. Only two seniors are among the 13 varsity players this year, and most of the juniors on the squad saw heavy action last year.

The Racers, 10-15 last year, have opened this season with four wins and three losses, having dropped Union, Southeast Missouri, North Texas, and Texas Wesleyan while losing by two points to Northwest Louisiana, to Stetson University and Miami University.

Paraplegic Still Hunts And Farms

TUSTIN, Mich. — (UPI) — William Overman Jr. is determined to keep up with the rigorous job of farming — and his favorite of hunting — despite a crippling setback.

The 36-year-old Overman has been a paraplegic for two years. His back was broken and he was permanently paralyzed from the waist down in a tractor accident. But this fall, Overman made a giant stride back to normal activity when a new tractor arrived at his farm. The vehicle has hand controls, protective roll bars and a safety belt.

The tractor will permit Overman to work on a cooperative basis with his neighbors. They will do much of the hand work on his farm and in return he will use his tractor on their land.

Meanwhile, a special permit from the State Conservation Department allows Overman to go hunting right from his car. "I'm not really at a big disadvantage," he says. "I've got a radio, heater and roof over me while the other hunters have to be out in the cold."

Overman also has a saddle horse on the farm which can take him where his wheelchair won't. He can accomplish this by hooking himself to either side of the saddle with leather straps.

TREES PACK PUNCH

PORTLAND, Ore. — (UPI) — The American Forest Products Industries reports a new use for trees — as punch.

The ladies of the Lebanon Herb Tea society made the punch by chopping up half cup of Douglas fir needles, adding a quart of water and letting the brew steep overnight. Strain twice before serving.

LOOK OUT FOR THAT T-R-E-E-E-E-E—Christmas tree, that is. Although the holiday season is a time of relaxed happiness and fun, it frequently is accompanied by lots of accidents. Simple precautions will keep your holidays safe as well as cheery—anchoring Christmas trees firmly—checking old or faulty tree lights. And, above all, extra caution when driving. Streets will be packed with carefree and careless drivers and pedestrians. A little care will keep your holidays happy.

ONLY A FEW MORE PACKAGE-SHAKING DAYS till Christmas. Got your shopping done? If not, here's a welcome gift idea for most anyone on your list. Give an extension phone in color. You can choose from a color range as brightly varied as Christmas itself. Add on extras if you like: no-tangle spring cords, light-up dials, volume control. Quickest shopping you ever did, too. A call to our Business Office will send a gift phone on its way—to those on your list whom you particularly want to please.

NOT A CREATURE WAS STIRRING. That's not quite true. Many of us at the Telephone Company stay on the job along with Santa. All through the holidays your calls will be handled, so send your good wishes to family and friends whenever you wish. And should an emergency come up, you'll get service "as usual." See you in '60. Till then from all of us, may this season be one of joy and fulfillment for you and yours.

P.S.: Another Bell Telephone Hour, an hour-long music show, will be coming your way Friday, December 18. You won't want to miss it, so check your newspaper listings for time and station.

Prisoners Survey Themselves, How They Got That Way

By AL KUETTNER
United Press International
ATLANTA — (UPI) — Have you ever passed by the cold, high walls of a prison and wondered what manner of man was behind the barrier?

The answer has been provided for one famous prison — the U. S. penitentiary here — by the alert editors of the institution's slick magazine, the Atlantian. They spent six months interviewing 500 prisoners to get their facts for "Project Prisoner," a statistical study that has won praise from famed psychiatrist Dr. Karl A. Menninger and from Warden Fred T. Wilkinson. The project, Wilkinson said, was particularly useful because it encouraged prisoners to ask themselves: "Why did I get this way?" Contrary to what may be popular belief, women and gambling did not put the skids to the prisoners as much as other things did — for example, bad company (25.7 per cent), liquor (21 per cent), emotional problems (17.6 per cent) and broken homes (13.4 per cent). Women rated 9.3 per cent on the downward scale and gambling only 3.7 per cent. Inmates of the penitentiary are a bit above the average in intelligence and 62.7 per cent said they attended church in the outside world. As for conditions in homes from which the prisoners came, the statistics do not show them in a bad light. More than 70 per cent of the 500 men said readily they were from "happy" homes which had an "average" living standard. In 66 per cent of the cases, no other member of the family had been in trouble. But there was a high percentage of divorce — 43 per cent. The highest percentage mark

(82.2) came in answer to the question: "Do you plan to go straight?" Among the dissenters on this question, however, came this plaintive reply from a man serving his sixth term at the age of 30: "When I leave I will have about $30 and that is all — no clothes, no home, no place to go. I will have to steal to get by. I started, and once you have started, what is the use of stopping?"

The magazine project contained further evidence that there is no such thing as a "criminal face." The feature included a photograph of 20 men — 10 inmates and 10 members of the prison staff. Members of the UPI bureau here took the press face test and almost everyone flunked. Commenting on the prison magazine study, Wilkinson said that he hopes to see the day "when the same type questions (put to the prisoners) will be asked by members of society who stand by guiltily when the prison doors close greedily behind the symbols of its failure."
